SUPERVISOR BOWEN ANNOUNCES THREE TOWN HALL MEETINGS

Residents invited to speak about Milwaukee County budget, other issues

Milwaukee – Milwaukee County Supervisor David Bowen, District 10, announced today that he is holding a series of three town hall meetings.

The locations are spread around the district to make it as convenient as possible for residents to attend the meetings, each of which will be held from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and will feature a special guest.

“I’m looking forward to meaningful discussion along with the exchange of useful information at each of these three meetings,” said Supervisor Bowen. “I want to hear my constituents’ ideas and their concerns about how to make County services responsive to their needs.”

Monday, October 1

Atkinson Library, 1960 W. Atkinson Avenue

Guest: Milwaukee County Supervisor Willie Johnson, Jr., District 13

Tuesday, October 2

Tiefenthaler Park Pavilion, 2501 W. Galena, Lower Level
